MEDICINAL

It's Time Wasted

And strength wasted, to try to push back the rising tide with a broom. It's just as great a waste of time and a far more serious waste of strength to try to push back the rising tide of disease with the "nervines," "compounds" and "nerve foods" which simply drug the nerves into a drunken stupor. They make you feel good? So does whisky, while the feeling lasts, but the reaction is dangerous and deadly. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a temperance medicine. It contains no alcohol, opium, cocaine or other narcotic. It strengthens the body by purifying the blood and increasing the supply of that vital fluid. It heals diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition and thus removes the obstacles to a perfect nourishment of the whole body.

"Six years ago my stomach and heart troubled me so much I had to do something, as the doctors could not help me," writes Mrs. S. A. Knapp, of San Jose, California, Box 32. "I went to San Francisco and had treatment for catarrh of the stomach and was better for some time, then it came back. I then used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' These medicines cured my stomach. I do not have the pain and indigestion as I did. It is very hard for me to tell you what I suffered before I commenced taking your valuable medicine. I recommend it to all the sufferers whom I meet."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets strengthen and stimulate the liver.

SOUTHERN METHODISTS.

At yesterday's session in Roanoke of the Baltimore Methodist Conference of the M. E. Church South the bishop announced Rev. Louis R. Jones, Dr. Kern and Dr. Carson as the committee to investigate the charges preferred against Dr. Heironimus.

When the bishop came to the question, "Who are superannuated?" the names of those already enrolled as such were called, and five more were referred to the committee on conference relations.

Rev. James H. Wolf, of Rileysville, Pa., was one of the venerable ministers who was a victim of the grip, and had to request the conference to place him on the superannuated list. He had labored for 46 years in the ministry. Rev. Rufus H. Wilson, New Market; Rev. J. M. Anderson, Standardville; Rev. J. L. Shipley, Roanoke, and Rev. A. T. Bonde, Rockbridge, were also placed on the superannuated list.

Reports on undergraduates were heard, and six were passed, and were elected to orders.

When the question was asked, "Who are admitted into full connection?" the following names were called and their characters passed: E. L. Woolf, Harry W. Burruss, Henry C. Febr, Boyd V. Switzer, Harvey Q. Burr and George Hazel.

The conference was stirred by the charge that the Rev. Dr. Griffin, of Whittonville, Va., had preached sanctification so strongly that he had driven members out of the church.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson said it was a question if Mr. Griffin was not over zealous in preaching sanctification. Rev. T. T. Fishburne spoke strongly in favor of Mr. Griffin, and said he did the right thing in cutting down the membership. It would be a good thing if the membership of other churches were cut down 50 per cent, and driven out.

Mr. Griffin explained that the membership had been reduced with the sanction of the church conference. Some were dead, some had left the country, some led immoral lives. What he did was in the spirit of brotherly love.

Dr. Denny said he would like to ask Mr. Griffin one more question, and that was if he had not preached that the use of tobacco was a sin against God.

Bishop Fitzgerald objected to the question. To raise the tobacco question was very dangerous in old Virginia.

Rev. Dr. Smith objected to ministers being subjected to such a catechism. He hoped the question would not be asked.

Dr. Denny did not press the question, and Mr. Griffin was elected to elders' orders without a dissenting voice.

Rev. Dr. Starr addressed the conference on the advantages of Randolph-Macon College. He appealed to the members of the conference to use their influence to secure endowments, the use of money for loan funds, additional students, etc.

Rev. Dr. W. R. T. Smith, president of the Randolph-Macon College, showed the growth of Methodist college work in the State.

The postgraduate meeting was held last night, and was addressed by Rev. Dr. Hass and Bishop Fitzgerald.

M. P. CONFERENCE.

At yesterday's session in Easton, Md., of the Maryland Conference the question of whether a time limit should be placed upon the pastorate of ministers or not was taken up. Several amendments were offered and voted down, after which a spirited debate was indulged in. The previous question was called for, and resulted in the defeat of the project of those in favor of the time limit by a close margin of nine votes. The ballot was as follows: For the five-year limit, ministerial, 47; laymen, 42; total, 89. Against the time limit, ministerial, 61; laymen, 37; total, 98. Total number of votes cast, 187.

The afternoon session was taken up with receiving the reports of the committee and church extension, theological seminary, Sunday school advancement and other committees. The theological seminary at Westminster, Md., reported that the graduating class is composed of seventeen, six of whom are college graduates.

A Testimonial From Old England.
"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Warrington, England. It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." It is a great pleasure to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to publish testimonials of this character. They show that great good is being done, pain and suffering relieved and valuable lives restored to health and happiness by this remedy. It is for sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

"Last winter I was confined to my bed with a very bad cold on the lungs. Nothing gave me relief. Finally my wife bought a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure that effected a speedy cure. I cannot speak too highly of that excellent remedy." Mr. T. K. Houseman, Mantawney, Pa.
